

Las Falles

The Falles is a traditional celebration held in commemoration of Saint Joseph in the city of Valencia, Spain. "Falles" resembles the celebration and the monuments burnt during the celebration. This festival is held in March and in 2019 it began on Friday 1st of March and ended on the 19th of March. The main reason most people come to the Las Falles festival is to see the burning of the sculptures on the final evening of the celebrations. Starting small with the burning of the children's sculptures at 10 pm, the fires get bigger and more epic throughout the night. The festival involves sculptures, elaborate costumes, fireworks, midday explosions and street parties. Women dress in traditional outfits that include lace dresses, veils, jewellery, and colourful sashes. This festival is full of energy and is a great festival to go to have lots of fun! The sights are colourful and bright, and the atmosphere is magical.

