Dear David Walliams,

I am writing to say thank you very much for letting my teacher, Mrs Summers, read your fantastic books on line to us every day.

We have just finished listening to your brilliant book 'Slime'. My favourite part was hearing about all of the jars filled with disgusting things like snot and toe nail clippings. My older sister Lucy would do something like that because she is a bit disgusting too!

I can't wait for your next book and I hope you have been busy writing and keeping safe during Lockdown. Perhaps you will write a story about some characters during Lockdown when it is all over.

Best wishes from

Lily-Rose
